

Forest Lakes Metropolitan District

Quick Tips for Trash Disposal

Let's talk trash!

- + What is it and who can use it? The Forest Lakes Metropolitan District (FLMD) provides trash, brush and ash disposal for all District residents. You must pick up your trash FOB for access to the dumpsters and brush pile at the FLMD office.
- + Where is the disposal facility located? Dumpsters are located by the Maintenance Shop at 6893 County Road 501. From the entrance of FL, take a right on 501 heading North, approximately 2 driveways up, turn left onto FLMD Shop Drive, drive past the fire station, go through the gate and the road will veer to the left – the dumpsters are located to the right. Brush pile is also located at 6893 CR 501, but after going through the gate, you will veer to the right - area is marked.
- + What are the Hours of Operation?

- + Can you Burn your Waste in Forest Lakes? Don't even think about it! Call Upper Pine Fire District for additional information and burn restrictions.
- + Here's More Important Information!
  - For the dumpsters, only household trash, do not place construction materials, tree and yard trimmings, appliances, mattresses, furniture, pallets, metals of any kind, tires, oil, batteries, hazardous, toxic or radioactive wastes or hot ashes in the containers.
  - For the brush pile, you can drop off limbs, leaves, pine needles, and organic yard waste only (No stumps of logs).
  - An Ash Barrel is available for you to dispose of your hot/cold ashes from your wood stove. Do not dispose of ashes in the dumpster.
  - Private trash services are allowed to collect trash in Forest Lakes, however residents will continue to be billed by the District for the centralized facility. Please have your contractor provide their own disposal containers and do not let them use the centralized facilities.
  - Don't use other peoples' key FOBs!
  - Don't leave garbage of any kind in front of the dumpsters!
  - Call (970) 884-2925 for additional info!
